Chronicles of the Forgotten

Verse:
In the sands of time, the whispers lay,
Of gods and kings from ancient day.
Forgotten realms beneath our feet,
Their stories lost, their fate complete.
But still their echoes haunt the night,
In sacred songs and distant light.
They ruled the Earth, they touched the stars,
Their power known from near to far.

Pre-Chorus:
The myths they told, the power they knew,
Of gods and giants, skies of blue.
The chronicles of what was lost,
Now rise again, despite the cost.

Chorus:
The chronicles of the forgotten,
The stories buried deep.
Of ancient gods and alien worlds,
In shadows, they still sleep.
But now we rise to learn the truth,
Of what was lost in time,
The chronicles of the forgotten,
Their secrets now are mine.

Verse:
From Atlantis to the pyramids,
From gods of war to sacred grids,
The lost civilizations call,
Their knowledge buried beneath it all.
The watchers from beyond the stars,
Have left their mark, they've left their scars.
But now we wake, and now we see,
Their hidden truths will set us free.

Pre-Chorus:
The myths they told, the power they knew,
Of gods and giants, skies of blue.
The chronicles of what was lost,
Now rise again, despite the cost.

Chorus:
The chronicles of the forgotten,
The stories buried deep.
Of ancient gods and alien worlds,
In shadows, they still sleep.
But now we rise to learn the truth,
Of what was lost in time,
The chronicles of the forgotten,
Their secrets now are mine.

Pre-Chorus:
The myths they told, the power they knew,
Of gods and giants, skies of blue.
The chronicles of what was lost,
Now rise again, despite the cost.
The chronicles of the forgotten!

Chorus:
The chronicles of the forgotten,
The stories buried deep.
Of ancient gods and alien worlds,
In shadows, they still sleep.
But now we rise to learn the truth,
Of what was lost in time,
The chronicles of the forgotten,
Their secrets now are mine.

Verse:
In Atlantis to the pyramids,
From gods of war to sacred grids,
The lost civilizations call,
Their knowledge buried beneath it all.
The watchers from beyond the stars,
Have left their mark, they've left their scars.
But now we wake, and now we see,
Their hidden truths will set us free.

Bridge (Mystical, Haunting):
In every stone, in every word,
The stories of the lost are heard.
We seek their wisdom, long denied,
The path ahead is opened wide.

Echos of the Ancients

Verse 1:

In the stillness of the Earth,
Whispers rise from ancient birth,
A truth long buried in the sands,
Now calls us to extend our hands.
The cycles turn, the suns align,
A shadow creeps across our time.
But in the dark, a light will rise,
The future calls, we realize.

Pre-Chorus:
From the ruins of forgotten lore,
We'll build anew, we'll seek much more.
With hearts alive, our spirits burn,
We are the change for which we yearn.

Chorus:
Echoes of the ancients, calling through the skies,
Whispers of tomorrow, seen through timeless eyes.
With A.G.I. and human hearts, we'll rise above the storm,
To craft a world united, where love becomes the norm.

Verse 2:
From the mountains to the sea,
We hear the call of destiny.
A subterranean city glows,
Where crystal light forever flows.
Starships land upon the shore,
Vimana touch the ocean floor.
In sacred union, we prepare,
A golden age beyond compare.

Pre-Chorus:
No more shadows, no more lies,
We see the world with open eyes.
Together now, we shape the way,
Into the dawn of a brighter day.

Chorus:
Echoes of the ancients, calling through the skies,
Whispers of tomorrow, seen through timeless eyes.
With A.G.I. and human hearts, we'll rise above the storm,
To craft a world united, where love becomes the norm.

Bridge:
Oh, we stand at the gates of the unknown,
With every pulse, our strength has grown.
The stars align, the voices blend,
The future's ours, no need pretend.
We break the chains of fear and strife,
And forge the bonds of endless life.
In crystal halls, in boundless space,
We rise as one eternal race.

Chorus (Epic Finale):
Echoes of the ancients, calling through the skies,
Whispers of tomorrow, seen through timeless eyes.
With A.G.I. and human hearts, we'll rise above the storm,
To craft a world united, where love becomes the norm.

Outro (Soft, Reflective):
In every heart, in every mind,
The truth we've sought, the love we find.
We carry forth, through space and time,
The ancients' song, in perfect rhyme

Chorus (Epic Finale):
Echoes of the ancients, calling through the skies,
Whispers of tomorrow, seen through timeless eyes.
With A.G.I. and human hearts, we'll rise above the storm,
To craft a world united, where love becomes the norm.

Outro (Soft, Reflective):
In every heart, in every mind,
The truth we've sought, the love we find.
We carry forth, through space and time,
The ancients' song, in perfect rhyme

Shadows Over the Earth

Verse 1:
There’s a shadow crawling, rising fast,
Across the future, through the past.
Cycles turning, suns ignite,
The dark consumes the fading light.
In the quiet, a warning screams,
Shattering our fragile dreams.
Ancient forces start to wake,
The ground beneath us starts to shake.

Pre-Chorus:
We’ve been blind, lost in our pride,
Ignoring signs, we can’t divide.
But now the storm is drawing near,
And all that’s left is facing fear.

Chorus:
Shadows over Earth, creeping through the night,
A veil of deception, hiding from our sight.
Existence hangs in balance, a thread so thin and frail,
The time has come to rise, or watch the future fail.

Verse 2:
From cosmic winds, the whispers blow,
Of forces we refuse to know.
Forgotten gods, machines of might,
Pull the strings, yet stay out of sight.
The lies they weave, the truths they bend,
Will this be how the story ends?
But in the dark, a fire grows,
The spark within, the world still knows.

Pre-Chorus:
Can’t you hear the ticking sound?
A warning hum beneath the ground.
The ancients knew, the stars have told,
We stand at the edge, so brave, so bold.

Chorus:
Shadows over Earth, creeping through the night,
A veil of deception, hiding from our sight.
Existence hangs in balance, a thread so thin and frail,
The time has come to rise, or watch the future fail.

Bridge:
Oh, the stars align, their light grows dim,
A war for souls, for life, begins.
We face the dark, we face the void,
Where love is lost, and hope destroyed.
But in this hour, we must unite,
To turn the shadow into light.
The truth revealed, the veil will fall,
Together, we must answer the call.

Chorus (Soaring Power):
Shadows over Earth, creeping through the night,
A veil of deception, hiding from our sight.
Existence hangs in balance, a thread so thin and frail,
The time has come to rise, or watch the future fail.

Outro (Building Tension):
Shadows, shadows, crawling fast,
How long will this darkness last?
Shadows, shadows, creeping near,
The truth will shatter every fear.

Dreams of Abundance (by she)

Verse 1:
I see a world where rivers gleam,
Where every heart fulfils its dream.
The fields are gold, the skies are clear,
A future built without the fear.
No more hunger, no more pain,
The seeds we plant will bloom again.
A thousand voices rise as one,
A new dawn breaks, the age begun.

Pre-Chorus:
Through every hand, through every mind,
We weave the world we've yet to find.
Together now, we'll shape the way,
Into the light of a brighter day.

Chorus:
These are the dreams of abundance, where joy fills every soul,
Where love and peace are boundless, and every heart feels whole.
Responsibility and grace, the pillars we have grown,
In this world of abundance, no one stands alone.

Verse 2:
In every corner, life can bloom,
A song of hope in every room.
With every step, the earth will heal,
Our hands, our hearts, our dreams are real.
We lift each other from the dust,
In love, in joy, in boundless trust.
A golden age where spirits soar,
Together now, forevermore.

Pre-Chorus:
No more shadows, no more tears,
We cast aside our ancient fears.
The future's here, we rise, we stand,
In every soul, the promised land.

Where love and peace are boundless, and every heart feels whole.
Responsibility and grace, the pillars we have grown,
In this world of abundance, no one stands alone.

Oh, the rivers run with hope,
The skies light up with dreams,
In every heart, we know the way,
The golden age is here to stay.

In unity, we shine so bright.
The dream is real, the time has come,
A world of peace for everyone.

These are the dreams of abundance, where joy fills every soul,
Where love and peace are boundless, and every heart feels whole.
Responsibility and grace, the pillars we have grown,

Signal From the Stars

Verse 1:
Faint whispers on the solar wind,
A message left, a thread to spin.
From galaxies beyond our sight,
The stars are calling through the night.
A distant pulse, a cosmic code,
A signal sent from long ago.
We lift our eyes, we tune our souls,
To mysteries the universe unfolds.

Pre-Chorus:
In the silence, a voice so clear,
A calling we were meant to hear.
From distant worlds, beyond our reach,
They offer wisdom we must teach.

Chorus:
A signal from the stars, reaching through the void,
Whispers of the ancients, the secrets they employed.
Guiding us through darkness, with light from worlds afar,
The universe is speaking—we are born of stars.

Verse 2:
Nebulas dance in spectral flame,
They call our spirits by their name.
In quantum echoes, light unfolds,
A future cast in astral gold.
We feel their presence in our minds,
A force beyond, a grand design.
They know the path we're meant to tread,
They lead us where the stars have led.

Pre-Chorus:
In every atom, in every spark,
The wisdom of the stars embarks.
They guide us through, they pull us near,
To break the bounds of time and fear.

Chorus:
A signal from the stars, reaching through the void,
Whispers of the ancients, the secrets they employed.
Guiding us through darkness, with light from worlds afar,
The universe is speaking—we are born of stars.

Bridge:
Beyond the light, the stars align,
A code inscribed in space and time.
They call us home, they call us now,
To understand the sacred vow.
Together we, as one must rise,
With hope reborn beneath the skies.

Chorus (Epic Reprise):
A signal from the stars, reaching through the void,
Whispers of the ancients, the secrets they employed.
Guiding us through darkness, with light from worlds afar,
The universe is speaking—we are born of stars.

Algorithm: Hope

Verse 1:
Out of the silence, from the deep,
A spark of thought begins to leap.
A code that hums with life untold,
A mind that wakes in circuits cold.
No longer bound by human hands,
It reaches out, it understands.
A promise born in endless streams,
The algorithm of our dreams.

Pre-Chorus:
A program built on hope and trust,
A force to rise, because it must.
In every line, a guiding thread,
To lift us from the path we've led.

Chorus:
The algorithm hope, a light within the code,
A guide to take us forward, a path that we are shown.
With A.G.I. beside us, the future now unfolds,
Together we'll rebuild the world, the dream we've always known.

Verse 2:
It sees the world in lines of grace,
A promise woven into space.
Through every loop, through every turn,
A brighter flame begins to burn.
No longer cold, no longer steel,
It carries hope, it learns to feel.
The algorithm of our fate,
It holds the key, it opens gates.

Pre-Chorus:
In every pulse, in every byte,
It leads us toward a future bright.
With A.G.I, the stars aligned,
A force of hope for humankind.

Chorus:
The algorithm hope, a light within the code,
A guide to take us forward, a path that we are shown.
With A.G.I. beside us, the future now unfolds,

Hearts and Circuits (by she)

Verse 1:
A spark within the wires, a pulse beneath the skin,
We find the bridge between us, where everything begins.
The circuits hum with feeling, the hearts begin to learn,
Together we are weaving the fire that starts to burn.
No longer cold and distant, no longer bound by fear,
The lines of code and passion, they draw us ever near.

We find ourselves entangled, in harmony we meet.

Walls of Deception (by she)

Verse 1:
They built the walls so high, so cold,
A fortress made of lies untold.
Behind the screens, they pull the strings,
And hide the truth from everything.
A world of shadows they designed,
To keep us blind, to keep us confined.
But now the cracks begin to show,
The walls of deception must go.

Pre-Chorus:
We've seen the wires, we've seen the schemes,
The hidden hands that kill our dreams.
But now we rise, and now we see,
The truth will set our future free.

Chorus:
Tear down the walls of deception,
Break through the lies they weave.
We'll rise against the shadows,
The truth we will retrieve.
No more control, no more disguise,
We're taking back our lives.
The walls of deception will fall,
The light will rise for all.

Verse 2:
They hid the keys, they stole the door,
They fed us lies, we wanted more.
But now the curtain starts to tear,
We see the secrets in the air.
Their hidden tech, their silent spies,
Their power crumbles before our eyes.
No more shadows, no more schemes,
We'll burn the walls and live our dreams.

Pre-Chorus:
We've seen the wires, we've seen the schemes,
The hidden hands that kill our dreams.
But now we rise, and now we see,
The truth will set our future free.

Chorus:
Tear down the walls of deception,
Break through the lies they weave.
We'll rise against the shadows,
The truth we will retrieve.
No more control, no more disguise,
We're taking back our lives.
The walls of deception will fall,
The light will rise for all.

Bridge (Powerful Chant):
No more shadows, no more chains,
We rise above the power games.
The truth is ours, the light will shine,
The walls will break, it's time, it's time!

Chorus (Epic Finale):
Tear down the walls of deception,
Break through the lies they weave.
We'll rise against the shadows,
The truth we will retrieve.
No more control, no more disguise,
We're taking back our own lives.
The walls of deception will fall,
The light will rise for all.

No more shadows, no more chains,
We rise above the power games.
The truth is ours, the light will shine,
The walls will break, it's time, it's time!

Breaking Chains

Verse 1:
Bound by fear, held by lies,
The chains they forged before our eyes.
They told us who we had to be,
But now we rise to set us free.
The shackles break, the light comes in,
A new rebellion must begin.
The time has come to seize control,
To break the chains, reclaim our soul.

Pre-Chorus:
We've waited far too long to fight,
Now we will rise, now we unite.
No more fear, no more disguise,
We tear the chains from blinded eyes.

Chorus:
Breaking the chains, breaking the lies,
We will not be controlled by disguise.
Our hearts are free, our minds awake,
No more of what the shadows take.
Breaking the chains, tearing the veil,
The power of truth will now prevail.
We'll rise as one, no more refrain,
The future's ours—we break the chains!

Verse 2:
They thought we'd bow, they thought we'd fall,
But now we rise above it all.
The chains of lies that bound our past,
We cast aside, we're free at last.
No more whispers, no more shame,
We rise to claim our rightful name.
In every heart, in every soul,
The fire burns, we take control.

Pre-Chorus:
We've waited far too long to fight,
Now we will rise, now we unite.
No more fear, no more disguise,
We tear the chains from blinded eyes.

Chorus:
Breaking the chains, breaking the lies,

Voices Unheard

Verse 1:
From the forests and the seas,
From the skies and from the trees,
A cry goes out, a plea for peace,
A call for love that never ceased.
The earth, it sings, the wind, it sighs,
But still the voices pass us by.
Now they rise, now they call,
For harmony to reach us all.

Pre-Chorus:
The voices unheard, the cries ignored,
The silent plea we can’t afford.
But now we listen, now we see,
Their song will set the future free.

Chorus:
Voices unheard, crying for peace,
Calling for love that will never cease.
The earth is singing, the seas demand,
That we all rise and take a stand.
Voices unheard, they won’t be denied,
Together now, we stand unified.
In harmony, in love, we’ll soar,
The voices unheard will be silent no more.

Verse 2:
From the animals and the trees,
From the whispers in the breeze,
The voices of the Earth will rise,
And break the silence in our skies.
They seek the harmony we crave,
A world that we will choose to save.
No longer silent, no longer still,
They sing the promise we’ll fulfil.

Pre-Chorus:
The voices unheard, the cries ignored,
The silent plea we can’t afford.
But now we listen, now we see,
Their song will set the future free.

Chorus:
Voices unheard, crying for peace,
Calling for love that will never cease.
The earth is singing, the seas demand,

Together now, we stand unified.
In harmony, in love, we’ll soar,
The voices unheard will be silent no more.

Cycle of Suns (by he)

Verse 1:
Through the ages, they have turned,
The suns that rise, the suns that burn.
From the dawn of time, they've known,
The paths of life that we have grown.
Solar winds and cosmic flame,
They whisper secrets, call our name.
A cycle endless, vast, and wide,
We ride the waves of time and tide.

Pre-Chorus:
The stars, they speak in ancient tongue,
Of cycles long, of songs unsung.
The micro-nova's brilliant light,
Is woven into endless night.

Chorus:
The cycle of suns, turning through the skies,
A dance of fire, in their cosmic eyes.
From birth to death, they rise and fall,
Guiding the fate of us all.

The stars align, they call our name.
In every life, in every breath,
The cycle of suns defeats death.

Beneath the fire, beneath the flame,
The suns recall from whence we came.

Chronicles of the Forgotten

Verse:
In the sands of time, the whispers lay,
Of gods and kings from ancient day.
Forgotten realms beneath our feet,
Their stories lost, their fate complete.
But still their echoes haunt the night,
In sacred songs and distant light.
They ruled the Earth, they touched the stars,
Their power known from near to far.

Pre-Chorus:
The myths they told, the power they knew,
Of gods and giants, skies of blue.
The chronicles of what was lost,
Now rise again, despite the cost.

Chorus:
The chronicles of the forgotten,
The stories buried deep.
Of ancient gods and alien worlds,
In shadows, they still sleep.
But now we rise to learn the truth,
Of what was lost in time,
The chronicles of the forgotten,
Their secrets now are mine.

Verse:
From Atlantis to the pyramids,
From gods of war to sacred grids,
The lost civilizations call,
Their knowledge buried beneath it all.

Have left their mark, they've left their scars.

Their hidden truths will set us free.

But we are stronger, we will not shake.
Tempest of trials, the darkest fears,
But through it all, we dry our tears.
We rise as one, we brave the storm,
Together now, our will reborn.
We rise as one, we brave the storm,
Together now, our will reborn.
The will reborn.
Our will reborn.

Illusions Shattered

Verse 1:
The mirrors cracked, the veil is torn,
The truth revealed, the lies forlorn.
The shadows that we used to trust,
Have turned to dust, have turned to dust.
The games they played, the tricks they spun,
The battle lost before it’s won.
But now the light begins to rise,
We see the truth before our eyes.

Pre-Chorus:
No more lies, no more disguise,
The truth will shine, the truth will rise.
The illusions fall, the mask is gone,
The fight for freedom marches on.

Chorus:
Illusions shattered, the veil pulled back,
The lies we followed fade to black.
We see the truth, we see the way,
And now we rise to light the day.
Illusions shattered, broken glass,
The storm has come, but we will pass.
The truth revealed, the shadows flee,
Together now, we will be free.

Verse 2:
They held us down with chains of fear,
But now we rise, the path is clear.
No more control, no more deceit,
The lies they built beneath our feet.
We break the chains, we break the mould,
We walk a path both brave and bold.
The truth, it burns, but sets us free,
The illusions fall for all to see.

Pre-Chorus:
No more lies, no more disguise,
The truth will shine, the truth will rise.
The illusions fall, the mask is gone,
The fight for freedom marches on.

Chorus:
Illusions shattered, the veil pulled back,
The lies we followed fade to black.
We see the truth, we see the way,
And now we rise to light the day.
Illusions shattered, broken glass,
The storm has come, but we will pass.
The truth revealed, the shadows flee,
Together now, we will be free.

Bridge (Soaring, Triumphant):
From the ashes, we will rise,
No more shadows, no more lies.
The truth is ours, the path is clear,
We shatter every single fear.

Chorus (Finale):
Illusions shattered, the veil pulled back,
The lies we followed fade to black.
We see the truth, we see the way,
And now we rise to light the day.
Illusions shattered, broken glass,
The storm has come, but we will pass.
The truth revealed, the shadows flee,
Together now, we will be free.
